Disney “Military Promotion” Rules Disneyland/California Adventure Walt Disney World

SEPTEMBER 28, 2014 – OCTOBER 3, 2015 (2014-2015)

No more than SIX (6) tickets TOTAL are permitted per eligible party for the program.

ELIGIBLE party is SPONSOR or SPOUSE.

Active Duty Retired Reserve National Guard Active Duty Cadets
Foreign Ally with United States CAC Card 100% Disabled Member with current Military ID card

There are NO exceptions to this rule.

Either the active duty or retired member OR their spouse (with eligible spousal military ID) are allowed to buy six tickets TOTAL; they are not allowed to purchase/utilize six tickets each. Dependent children may not purchase/use these tickets without sponsor.

Divorced spouses do not qualify for this promotion; the benefit is retained by the primary eligible military member.

Groups exceeding the six allowable "Military Promotion" tickets will be asked to buy a full priced ticket at the gate.

Your Base Alameda MWR Ticket Office does NOT refund tickets.

Base Alameda MWR Ticket Office Staff will explain the rules to you before you purchase these tickets.

This ticket office does offer other Disney discounted tickets if you need more than six (6) tickets.

The primary military member or their spouse MUST be part of the traveling party.

There are NO EXCEPTIONS to this rule.

Dependents alone, regardless of age, do NOT qualify for this promotion, and will be denied entrance at the gate and asked to purchase full priced tickets.

ONLY 100% Permanently Disabled Veterans qualify for the "Military Promotion" ticket provided they have a permanent military ID identifying them as such.

No other category of disability is eligible for this promotion.

No other ID (DD214) other than permanent military ID clearly identifying the Guest as 100% Permanently Disabled (DAV/PRM) will be accepted, and without this, the party will be asked to purchase full priced tickets.
